

Joining conditions for Staff

Joining conditions for all people who sign up as Staff for Flamboree 2009

Flamboree 2009 takes place on the Hopper youth site in Sint-Joris-Weert, near Leuven in Belgium, from Wednesday the 29th of July 2009 until Saturday the 8th of August. It's organised by Scouts en Gidsen Vlaanderen VZW.

Construction of the site starts on Sunday the 19th of July. The clearing ends on Friday the 14th of August 2009. We expect service to arrive at least on Sunday the 26th of July 2009. We also expect them to join for the whole period of Flamboree.

1. All people born before the 19th of July 1991 who are member of a scouting organization recognized by WOSM or WAGGGS, can join the Flamboree as service.
2. Subscription is only possible by the online registration form. Each servicer should provide a valid e-mail address since all communication from the organization and between service happens by e-mail.
3. The organization should have received your registration before the 28th of February 2009. If the maximum number of service (300) is reached, a waiting list will be installed.
4. The costs for joining when subscribing before the 30th of November 2008 amount to €150 per person. An advance of €50 should be paid, at the latest 4 weeks after receiving the advance invoice. All possible extra bank fee are to be paid by the servicer. Subscription is only definitive after receiving this advance and after a written assurance from the participant's federation that he/she is indeed a member. The servicer will receive an invoice for the remaining subscription fee only after the 15th of January. This should be paid in the four weeks following the receipt.
5. Subscription after the 30th of November 2008 is also possible, the costs will be raised by €10. All of the subscription fee of €160 should be paid in the 4 weeks after the receiving of the invoice. Subscription will only be definitive after receiving this fee and after a written assurance from the participant's federation that he/she is indeed a member.
6. If the fee isn't paid before the limit mentioned above, the subscription will be canceled in disadvantage of the participant after a written warning. All already executed payments remain the property of Scouts en Gidsen Vlaanderen VZW.
7. Subscription fee includes: stay and meals (incl. water, tea/coffee) from the day of arrival until departure of the servicer, a service packet and an overview of the program and leisure activities for service. Transport to and from the camping site, additional drinks and snacks and possible additional trips are not included.

8. In case of cancellation before the first of March 2009, the advance will be paid back entirely, except for a €25 cost (and all possible bank fees). While canceling after the first of March and before the 31st of May, at maximum half of the fee will be repaid (except for all possible risen bank fees). In case of cancellation after the 31st of May, repayment won't be possible.
9. In case of circumstances beyond one's control, subscription can be cancelled exceptionally, with conclusive evidence. The subscription fee will be repaid, except for the costs already made by the organization (a minimum of €25) and the possible bank fees that may arise. This cancellation should be reported to the organization as soon as possible, within a week of the rise of these circumstances and at the latest before the actual start of the Flamboree. This cancellation must be done by written medium (e.g. e-mail, fax, letter) and must contain a clear description of the circumstances and all possible evidence.
10. By arrival on the camp site, the personal data supplied at your subscription will be checked once more by the organization.
11. Servicers who are member of Scouts en Gidsen Vlaanderen are already insured by having paid the member's fee. This insurance remains during the Flamboree. Servicers who aren't a member should have an insurance securing against personal physical accidents, repatriation and civil liability. A proof of this insurance should be provided to Flamboree's organization. In some cases, an insurance from the organization of Flamboree itself is possible.
12. The servicer is responsible for his/her personal equipment. The organization declines every responsibility for loss, theft or damage of servicers' equipment during Flamboree or the journey. In case of specific personal equipment, brought to be used in function of the camp and demanded by the organization, exceptions are possible. It will be insured automatically.
13. The organization cannot be held responsible for personal accidents taking place during the camp. Furthermore, the organization cannot be held responsible for circumstances beyond its control resulting in the (partial) cancellation of the camp. In that case, no part of the subscription fee will be repaid, except when decided otherwise by the organization of Flamboree.
14. While paying the (advance and) subscription fee, the participant formally agrees with the conditions for joining as stated above. The behavior rules will be added to this conditions and delivered to the servicer after registration.
15. In case of juridical problems, only the Belgian law applies; the courts of justice of the district of Antwerp will be competent. The organization of Flamboree reserves the right to dissociate from this clause assigning juridical authority.
16. All communication concerning Flamboree will happen by mail via info@flamboree.be, or via postal services: Flamboree Scouts en Gidsen Vlaanderen, Lange Kievitstraat 74, 2018 Antwerp, Belgium.
